

10.1. Proverbs. Connect the parts by drawing a line.

The apple never falls	in the mouth.
Money makes	thorns.
Never look a gift horse	far from the tree
No rose without	the world go round.
Opportunity	never dies.
Old love	makes a thief.
One hand washes	the other.
Speech is silver	catches the worm.
The early bird	attract.
Opposites	but silence is golden.

10.2. Delete the bad alternative:

A man walks / flies into a grocery store and weeps / says: „I want to buy every rotten / fried egg you are / have.“

„Who wants rotten eggs?“ says the hen / shopkeeper. „No one / everybody wants rotten eggs, unless you're missing / going to see that lousy comedian at the club on the corner / in the cookery book.“

The man jumps / replies: „I know. I am the lousy comedian at the club on the corner.“

grocery: food store
rotten: bad, decayed
unless: if not

10.3. MUCH or MANY?

There are .....many..... silly mistakes in your test.

Don't make so ..... noise, please.

This is a lousy work. You didn't take ..... trouble.

There are ..... trains between London and the suburbs . There are ..... buses, too. .... people go to work between 8 and 9, and there's never ..... room. After 9 there aren't so ..... people.

He sells ..... of his books and makes ..... money.

We have so ..... homework to do.

How ..... full bottles are there left?
