

32.1. CHOOSE A SUFFIX:

Select the suffix from the following list to complete the unfinished word in each sentence. A suffix is the last part of a word.

-ize -ness -al -able -less -ly

- Sandy was strict.../y... against his idea.
- Bruce is absolutely fear..... .
- His elder brother is known for his rude..... .
- Alice, the social worker, was known for her kind..... .
- I will definite..... finish my work by 5 pm.
- When computers became port..... , a whole new industry was born.
- Scarlett was always fixing things. She had great mechanic..... ability.
- Julian was practical..... out of money. So I lent him forty dollars.
- This secret is strict..... between us.
- At the meeting, Kevin was asked to summar..... the results.
- Fortunately, the large furniture we bought was mov..... .

32.2. HOMONYMS - SELECT THEM FROM THE LIST TO COMPLETE THE SENTENCE:

The word homonym comes from the Greek. It means "having the same name".

bark	a dog's sound	the hard surface of a tree
fair	reasonable	an entertainment or exhibit
grave	needing serious thought	a hole dug in the ground for a coffin
left	departed	opposite of right
trip	stumble of fall	journey

bat	the only mammal that can fly	a club or heavy stick used in sports fine	not coarse	well
kind	type	caring
peak	pointed top of a mountain	tip of a hat
wave	motion with hand	a ridge of water travelling into shore

- Though the Matterhorn is not the highest ...peak... of the Alps, it is probably the best known.
- Every few minutes we could hear the workmen say, "Don't over the tools."
- He said he could be a great competitor in softball if only he had a good
- She told me she felt
- Then she saw Alan flirting with Denise. That's why she the party furiously.
- A flew into our attic. I had never seen a flying mammal before.
- It was very of you to show me the way to Mendocino.
- I thought the bike was priced right. I told Anthony that the price was
- "Jeu de Paume" is a ball game, aof tennis.
- Americans call the horizontal surface on a cap that shades the eyes visor, in Britain it is a
- A big turned the boat around.
- From the 13th to the 18th century, there was held a six-week trading festival every year attracting merchants from all over Europe. This was the famous Scarborough