

14.1. Arrange the parts in the right order.

Put the adverb of time at the beginning or at the end of the sentence.

at the fox inn / I / last night / my former classmates / met

Last night I met my former classmates at the Fox Inn.

to the cinema / twice a week / my brother and his girlfriend / go

.....

to Italy / next months / they're going

.....

last week / at Piccadilly Circus / I met Carol

.....

here / at four o'clock / she'll be

.....

the tickets / yesterday / at the railway station / I bought

.....

14.2. Make Proverbs: Join the parts by a line.

Where there's a will
The road to hell is paved
When in Rome,
There are two sides
Revenge is Better late
A liar is not believed Speech is silver
No rose without Knowledge

is power.
to everything.
there's a way.
sweet.
than never.
even when he speaks the truth.
a thorn.
do as Romans do.
but silence is golden.
with good intentions .

14.3. Complete these sentences. Use AT / FOR / AFTER / IN.

I looked ...at... the headlines, but I didn't read the newspaper carefully.

Jennifer is looking a job she wants to work an office.

May I take a photograph of you? Please look the camera and say "cheese".

Bye! Have a good time and look yourself.

Excuse me, we are looking 221B Baker Street. Can you tell me where it is?

Carol is ill. She needs somebody to look her.

Who looks my dog when I'm on holiday?

Look this photo! It's me my birthday party.

What are you waiting? I'm afraid this isn't a bus station.