

Rod Steward / Joan Baez

....I'm.... sailing, ..... sailing,
 ..... again, across the sea.
 ..... stormy waters
 ..... near ....., ..... free.
 ..... flying, ..... flying
 like ..... across the sky.
 ..... flying, passing high clouds
 ..... near ....., ..... free.
 ..... you hear ....., .....hear .....
 through the dark ....., far away?
 ..... dying, forever trying
 .....with ....., who .....
 We....., we.....
 .....again, across.....
 We .....stormy waters,
 .....near .....
 Oh my Lord .....
 .....

I'm - Am I...?
 you're - Are you...?
 he's - Is he...?
 she's - Is she...?
 it's... - Is it...?
 we're - We are...?
 you're - Are you...?
 They're - Are they...?

I'm flying. = Well, this is what I do now.
I am flying. = Wow! Look! I'm really doing it!

to sail: to go by boat
cloud: white or dark spot in the sky
to hear: to listen
dark: black
night: dark period between days
through: across
to die (-> dying): lose one's life
to try (-> trying) do it as a test
far away: a long way from here
Lord: God, master

read » reading (regular)
write » writing (silent e is dropped)
run » running (doubled consonant after a stressed vowel)

CHANGE FROM THE SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE INTO THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS (=PROGRESSIVE PRESENT) by dropping the underlined word and adding the expression in brackets:

1. The birds never fly over the sea. (NOW)... Now the birds are flying over the sea. .....
2. They sail on the lake every afternoon. (LOOK) .....
3. He plays tennis like Roger Federer. (AT THE MOMENT). .....
4. She usually comes home before midnight. (LISTEN) .....
5. Do you like to sing in the shower? (REALLY).....
6. Does he sleep well? (ALREADY) .....