

"All Kinds of Everything" is a song recorded by Irish singer Dana. She represented Ireland in the Eurovision Song Contest 1970 held in Amsterdam. The recording became an international hit.

Dana sings about all the things which remind her of her sweetheart (such as wishing-wells, wedding bells and an early morning dew) with the admission at the end of every verse that "all kinds of everything remind me of you".

Snowdrops and daffodils, ...butterflies... and Sailboats and, things of the sea
Wishing-wells, wedding bells, earlydew
All kinds of everythingme of you

Seagulls and, things of the sky
Winds that go howlin', breezes that sigh
City sights, neon, grey skies or blue
All kinds of everything remindof you

....., wintertime
.....and autumn too
....., Tuesday every day
I think of you

Dances, romances, things of the night
.....and holidays, postcards to write
Budding trees,leaves, a snowflake or two
All kinds of everything remind me of you

Summertime,
Spring and autumn too
Seasons will never
Thethat I love you

Dances, romances,of the night
Sunshine and, postcards to write
Budding trees, autumn leaves, aor two
Allof everything remind me of you
